The American Brahms Society is a non-profit organization. The IRS has determined that donations in excess of dues may be considered as charitable contributions.

I would like to recommend the following individual as a possible member of the American Brahms Society:

Name: _____ e-mail: _____

Address: _____

I would like to distribute sample copies of the ABS Newsletter (back issues), with information sheets on the ABS inserted, at a concert/lecture/scholarly meeting that will be taking place on: _____ (date).

Contact The American Brahms Society at brahms.abs@unh.edu with information about the event.

(A month and a half's advance notice is necessary to enable the ABS to take advantage of reduced postal rates for printed matter.)

* We are trying to save on the costs of staff time, paper, and postage by shifting to communicating with you via email. We will not share your email address with any other organizations.
